FROM THE EDITORS

The editors of The Southside Virginian wish to thank their subscribers for their support for this year's magazine. It was particularly nice to meet our subscribers at the Virginia-North Carolina genealogical conference in Raleigh this past August.

We continue in our search for more unusual records, especially those not found in the bound county court records. Again we wish to thank those people who have submitted material to us.

We look forward to a good year and as always welcome your suggestions.

NOTTOWAY INDIAN CENSUS
SOUTHAMPTON COUNTY, 1808
by L.H.Hart

The following enumeration of the Nottoway Indian tribe is abstracted from the Executive Papers (July 1-22, 1808) at the Virginia State Library, Archives Division. It is contained in a letter to the Governor from the Trustees of the Nottoway tribe dated July 18, 1808. The trustees were seeking instructions concerning the leasing and/or division of the Indian lands.

The material will be presented as closely as possible to the original format. The list includes the males, their ages, their employments, and general remarks about their character, etc. as found in the letter, followed by a list of the females with the same data. The acreage they tilled and genealogical data will be included in the general remarks.

1. Littleton Scholar 51years Tillage a small part of his time, balance idle; 12 acres; he is the only Indian in his family, his wife being a white woman.
2. Tom Turner 36years Tillage when he works, his employment at present unknown, as he has left his farm in the possession of a mulatto woman who has been kept by him as a wife, the greater part of his time has been generally spent in drunkenness, and the destruction of what little crop he has made; 18 acres; he is the only Indian in his family.
3. Jemmy Wineoak 38years Tillage, idle more than three fourths of his time; 18 acres; he is the only Indian in his family, has no wife, a mulatto woman lives with him.

Until September 1806, he with Fanny and Solomon Bartlett lived with a relation of theirs named Celia Rogers, a Nansemond Indian, on the land of the Nottoways; at that time Celia Rogers died (their parents being long dead), they were without a near relation and none of the Nottoways came to take care of them. The Trustees took them into their families. Alexander was taken into the family of Robert Goodwyn, a trustee, and has continued with Goodwyn's widow.

7. John Woodson 12years Employment unknown.

10. Edy Turner 54years Her employments are knitting, sewing, and what is usual in common housewifery; 34 acres; she has had 2 negroes hired for her, last year by the Trustees and this year by her husband; her family consists of herself, Polly Woodson, and John Woodson, whose allowances are paid to her for their maintenance.
11. Nancy Turner 34years Knitting, sewing, weaving, etc.; 15 acres also 3 acres worked at her desire and with our permission by a free negro; the Indian part of her family is composed of herself and her son Henry Turner, whose allowance hse receives.

RECORDS OF A SUSSEX COUNTY FAMILY, 1745-1845
by Gary M. Williams

At a public sale some years ago near Yale in Sussex County, Mr. Jack Vick of Courtland, Virginia purchased two small leatherbound volumes of ancient vintage that had been handed down in the Dunn family. Throughout these books are inscriptions of family records providing data (generally births) on the family of one Richard Mason (1747/8-died after 1805) who married Mary Jones Burrow in 1773 and Mary Wrenn Woodford of Greensville County in 1799, both widows. The births of three of his slaves are also included. Both volumes are mid-18th century, and one of these appears to be a combination of several works, including the Book of Common Prayer and three religious volumes published in Edinburgh in 1761 and 1764. The other volume is an edition of the Principles of the Christian Religion Explained: In a Brief Commentary Upon the Church Catechism by William Wake, Archbishop of Canterbury. It is of specific historic interest that the latter volume was originally owned by, or rather given to, "The Right Honourable Lady Hariot Stuart", and is inscribed on the flap. "Lady Dunmore". One can only surmise that the volume came into possession of this obscure Sussex family following a sale of Lord Dunmore's effects after his departure from Virginia in 1776. In subsequent years, the owners appear to have been one Patrick Knox, the said Richard Mason, and Sarah Mason, his daughter, who married one Thomas Harwood. The former volume is inscribed "Mary Burrow her Book".

Richard Mason was the son of James Mason of Sussex who died intestate sometime before 1756. His mother, Mary Mason, may have been the daughter of one Richard Tomlinson who died testate in what was then Surry County in 1751. She married John Jenkins following Mason's death and later, in 1767, she married Thomas Harrison of Brunswick County. She died intestate, probably in Brunswick, sometime before 1789. Richard Mason was her sole heir, or so it would appear from a chancery cause commenced in Sussex Court in 1789 (Harwell vs.

Mason) involving a Negro slave, Abraham.

Mary Burrow, born 1749, was the daughter of one John Jones, a Sussex millwright who died intestate about 1759. She was her mother's namesake. She first married William Burrow, by whom she had a son, Allen Jones Burrow, in 1769. By Richard Mason she had nine children, according to the entries in the larger of the two volumes. (The Albemarle Parish Register includes only three births.) Following her death in 1796 (a record provided from these records), Richard Mason married Mary Woodford in 1799, who appears to have been the daughter of one James Wrenn of Greenville County, who died testate in 1797. Richard and Mary Woodford Mason had a son, Green Hill Mason, born in Septmeber of the year they were married.

Patsy Mason, a daughter of Richard Mason by Mary Jones Burrow Mason, married William Prince, Jr. of Sussex by whom she had a son (named for her grandfather), John Jones Prince. John J. Prince (1800-1860), who married Martha Pennington of Sussex in 1824, served as a member of the Virginia House of Delegates, 1838-1841, and as Clerk of the Sussex County Court, 1846-1860.

Mary Woodford Mason had a daughter by her former marriage, Dolley Woodford, who married one Henry Tudor (born ca. 1792) of Sussex, son of Henry and Lucretia (Creasy) Adams Tudor, in 1812. Richard Mason, Dolley's step-father, along with her mother, consented to the marriage. The birth dates of five children born to Henry and Dolley are provided. Their son Henry, born in 1817 and who died testate in Sussex in 1892, married Sarah Jane Mason Whitehorn, the widow of Burrell Whitehorn, in March, 1839. She was the daughter of Charles J. Mason (1786-1857) and granddaughter of Richard and Mary Jones Burrow Mason. Consequently, her grandfather was also her husband's step-father.

Patience and her children are absent from that list, an indication that they may have been sold. At that time Richard Mason owned thirteen slaves.)

CHARLOTTE COUNTY POWERS OF ATTORNEY

Deed Books 8-19 (1797 - 1830)

by J.C.Kolbe

An important source for documenting migration is the power of attorney, recorded in county deed books. This instrument usually shows where a person has moved and gives some clue to his connection with the county in which the power of attorney is recorded. Often, two or three generations are mentioned within one instrument.

The Index to Deeds for Charlotte County has been examined, and those powers of attorney which contain genealogical information or evidence of migration have been abstracted.

Standard state abbreviations are used as well as the following:
DB-Deed Book; P-Page; Co.-County; p.a.- Power of Attorney.

LOSSES TO THE BRITISH IN NANSEMOND COUNTY, 1782

by L.H.Hart

Loss the Inhabitants of Nansemond County have Sustained by the several Invations of the Enemy during the present war. Taken the 18th day of November 1782.

The above is a description of lists of property owners and what they lost to the British in the Revolutionary War. The lists are found in Executive Communications of the Virginia State Library, Archives Division.

The format used includes the name of the individual and a valuation of property lost broken down by type and then totalled . All figures are in pounds. The following abbreviations are used: H-Houses, N-Negroes, S-Stock, F-Furniture, P-Provisions, V-Vessels, M-Merchandise, C-Cash, T-Total.

This list is most valuable as there is no personal property tax list extant for this date. The individual receipts should be consulted by interested individuals as they are more specific as to the nature of the property lost and may in some instances have additional information. They are filed with the lists.

SOME ROBERT CHAPPELLS OF
AMELIA AND LUNENBURG COUNTIES, VIRGINIA

Susan Bracey Sheppard

All too often genealogical researchers are frustrated to discover several persons of the same name who were contemporaries and who lived in geographical proximity to one another. One case that has caused considerable consternation is that of the various Robert Chappells of Amelia and Lunenburg counties, Virginia. Over the years the identities of the Robert Chappell who married Agnes Cross in Amelia County in 1759, the Robert Chappell who died in Lunenburg County in 1794, the Robert Chappell who was a justice of the peace and vestryman in Lunenburg County in the early 1800s, and the Robert Chappell who died in Lunenburg County in 1824 have been confused.¹ Who were they and how, if at all, did they relate to each other?

* * *

On 21 November 1759 Robert Chappell, identified as being of Dinwiddie County, and Agnes Cross, daughter of William and Jane ¹There were other Robert Chappells: Robert son of James and Phebe Chappell of Amelia [Amelia County, Virginia, Will Book 2, p. 197-200], Robert who married Sarah Hurt in Amelia County in 1765 [Virginia Genealogical Society Quarterly Bulletin, April 1968, Vol. VI, No. 2, p. 46], Robert of Amelia who married Peggy Williamson [Amelia Deed Book 20, p. 129-130, 174, 179, 348-349; Amelia Deed Book 20, p. 216-217, 349-350; Amelia Deed Book 21, p. 74-75], Robert (married Mary) son of John and Prudence Chappell of Amelia [Amelia Will Book 2, p. 140-142; Amelia Deed Book 15, p. 195-196]. . . . This researcher has not attempted to identify further these men.

Cross of Amelia, took out a marriage bond in Amelia County.² By 1764 Chappell had moved to adjoining Lunenburg County. Although there has been some question as to the identity of the Robert Chappell of Lunenburg who died there in 1794, several factors indicate that he was indeed the man who had married Agnes Cross.³

Robert Chappell died in Lunenburg County, Virginia, between 5 September and 11 December 1794.⁴ Four children (Molley Bagley,⁵ Betsey Watkins,⁶ John Chappell, and Robert Chappell) and

This researcher has not pursued Robert Chappell's life in Dinwiddie County.

³Nottoway County, which now separates Amelia and Lunenburg counties, was not formed until 1788.

There were also Robert and Agnes Chappell of Georgia, who had moved from Virginia about 1788. It is known that they had a son--William--born in Virginia in 1776. [Brent Holcomb, Marriage and Death Notices from the Southern Christian Advocate, (Southern Historical Press, 1979), Vol. I, p. 632] They were not, however, the couple who had married in Amelia County in 1759, as will be shown.

⁴Lunenburg Will Book 3, p. 73b-75a.

⁵She was the wife of Anderson Bagley. [Lunenburg Will Book 3, p. 73b-75a].

⁶She was the wife of Samuel Watkins. Watkins married first Elizabeth Goode (1760-1792), 26 July 1773, Cumberland County, Virginia. He and Elizabeth Chappell were married before 5 September 1794. He died between September 1794 and December 1795, in Nottoway County; by 11 March 1797 Elizabeth had remarried--to a Coleman (could it have been Green Coleman, who had been administrator of the estate of Samuel Watkins?). His children, apparently by the first wife, were Samuel, Frederick, Alice Goode, and Philip. [Katherine B. Elliott, Marriage Records, 1749-1840, Cumberland County, Virginia (South Hill, Va., [1969]), p. 135; Lunenburg Will Book 3, p. 73b-75a; Nottoway County, Virginia, Will Book 1, p. 222, 223-227; Lunenburg Order Book 17, p. 190-191].

a grandchild (Polley Chappell Bagley⁷) were mentioned in his will, but no wife; presumably she had died before the will was written. While the lack of her name has caused some difficulty on the subject of his identity, other records provide the tie-in. In 1793 a deed from Robert and Agnes Chappell to Hincham Gilliam was made and recorded⁸; Agnes was still alive at least thirteen months before the man alleged to be her husband wrote his will. (This deed also places a Robert Chappell with a wife Agnes still in Virginia as late as that date.) The purpose of this 1793 deed was to reaffirm a 1786 deed (Agnes had not previously released her dower rights), by which Chappell had, in turn, sold land which had been purchased by him in 1774 and in 1783.⁹ These deeds (for land on Bear Element and Flat Rock creeks) establish that the Robert with wife Agnes who was in Lunenburg in 1793 had been in Lunenburg since at least 1772. There are two earlier deeds for Robert Chappell in Lunenburg, made in 1764 and 1766.¹⁰ These two deeds show that Robert Chappell had purchased land on Green Creek. This land, apparently, was close to Crooked Run Creek, near the head branches of Bear Element and Flat Rock creeks; in 1770, when according to Lunenburg deeds Robert Chappell owned land on Green Creek only, a notice in the Virginia Gazette advised that he had found and taken in a lost mare on Crooked Run Creek in Lunenburg County, implying that he lived there.¹¹

In 1783 Robert Chappell did buy land--287 acres--on Crooked Run Creek, land to which reference was implied in the will of the Robert Chappell who died in 1794.¹² But four years later when his son Robert (d. 1826) sold his half of the land that he had inherited, he sold 457 acres.¹³ Although the Lunenburg County land tax books had been showing the 287 acres as a separate tract, the indication here is that it adjoined other land of Robert Chappell (d. 1794) with which it was combined after his death. Obviously then this man (d. 1794) was involved in more than just the 1783 deed.

The Lunenburg County tithe lists¹⁴ indicate a Robert Chappell, Sr., and a Robert, Jr., through 1772 and only one Robert thereafter, through 1783. It was obviously Robert, Jr., who continued on the tithe lists: it had been Robert, Jr., who was involved in the deeds for land on Bear Element and Flat Rock creeks and was known to have been in Lunenburg in those years. In the will, written in 1773 in Amelia County, of Agnes Smith, apparent grandmother of Agnes Cross Chappell, two of the witnesses were Robert Chappell, Jr., and Agness Chappell. And in the Lunenburg personal property tax lists only one Robert Chappell was indicated before 1794; this man had to have been the husband of Agnes Cross: by the division of the estate of William Cross in Amelia County in 1782, Robert Chappell received allotment number one, certain slaves¹⁵; the same slave names appeared with Robert Chappell in the Lunenburg personal property tax books through 1786, which is the last year that slaves were specifically named in these lists.

Robert Chappell who died in 1794 in Lunenburg County, Virginia, had to have been the Robert Chappell who had married Agnes Cross in Amelia County, Virginia, in 1759.

* * *

Robert Chappell (d. 1794) was apparently born on 2 April 1732 in Prince George County, Virginia, to Robert and Elizabeth Chappell.¹⁶ In 1769 Robert, Sr., was living with Robert, Jr., in Lunenburg County, and in 1772 was still in Lunenburg, although in a separate household.¹⁷ Sometime after 1772 Robert, Sr., moved to Amelia County, Virginia. There, in February 1779, being in a low state of life, he gave by deed of gift to his daughter Martha Mayes certain named slaves.¹⁸ By 1787 he had died, apparently intestate. In that year, also in a deed of gift, Elizabeth Chappell (widow of Robert, Sr.) distributed personal property to her children and grandchildren and made provision for the education and raising of a grandson. This deed of gift was made 13 January 1787, proved 27 April 1787 and 25 October 1787, and recorded on the last date.¹⁹

¹⁵ These slaves were: Will, Isaac, Old Modie, Hannah, Ned, James, little Phebe, Nan, Caesar, Sarah. [Amelia Will Book 3, p. 169-171.]

¹⁶ Churchill G. Chamberlayne, transcriber, The Vestry Book and Register of Bristol Parish, Virginia. 1720-1789 (Richmond, Va., privately printed [by W. E. Jones], 1898), p. 298.

Was this the same Robert Chappell?

Sometime between 1779 and 1787 Martha Chappell Mayes's husband had died and she had married a Woodward, probably Jesse Woodward. Martha is the proof that the Elizabeth Chappell of the 1787 deed of gift was the widow of Robert, Sr., of the deed of gift of 1779: Although she was Martha Woodward by 1787, we know that she had been married previously to a Mayes because Elizabeth Chappell referred to Martha's "seven first Children, viz, Stephen Mayes, Elizabeth Mayes, Robert Mayes, Edward Mayes, Ann Mayes, Martha Mayes, and Mathew Mayes." Furthermore, the names of the slaves that Robert Chappell, Sr., had given to Martha Mayes were the same as the names of the slaves that Elizabeth Chappell gave to Martha Woodward--apparently reaffirming that gift.

The evidence that Robert Chappell (d. 1794) was the son of ¹⁷Sunlight on the Southside p. 287.

This researcher has not as yet personally researched the early life of Robert Chappell, Sr. (d. between 1779-1787).

¹⁸Amelia Deed Book 15, p. 49.

¹⁹Amelia Deed Book 18, p. 204-205.

Robert and Elizabeth also lies with the slaves. Apparently here too Elizabeth's deed of gift was reaffirming a gift previously made. Six of the seven slaves given to Robert (d. 1794) in Elizabeth's deed of gift of 1787 appeared under Robert Chappell's name in Lunenburg County personal property tax books from 1782 through 1786, and the names of five of the seven were the same as five slaves bequeathed in the will of Robert (d. 1794).

The known children of Robert and Elizabeth Chappell were Robert Chappell, John Chappell, Ann Smith, Mary Murrell, and Martha Mayes Woodward.

* * *

One of the causes of the confusion as to the identity of the Robert Chappell who died in 1794 arises from the misidentification of a Robert Chappell, Jr., who died in 1824, also in Lunenburg. This latter Robert, who called himself junior, named his mother, Martha Rogers, in his will. Apparently the problem arose from a failure to notice that there were then two Robert Chappells in Lunenburg. Robert (d. 1824) was not, as has often been assumed, the son of Robert (d. 1794); if he had been, then there would indeed have been a problem with the identification of Robert (d. 1794) as the man who had married Agnes Cross. Robert (d. 1824) was the son of John (d. 1795); Robert (d. 1826) was the son of Robert (d. 1794).

In Lunenburg County Order Book 16 (p. 476), on 11 December 1794, there is an entry ordering the recording of the will of Robert Chappell; the entry immediately following notes that Robert Chappell came into court and chose Samuel Watkins as his guardian. Due to the proximity of these two entries and the fact that the guardian was the son-in-law of Robert (d. 1794), the Robert choosing his guardian was obviously the son of Robert (d. 1794). He was under 21 years old since he needed a guardian and was 14 years or older since he could chose his own guardian; therefore he had been born between 1773 and 1780.

John Chappell, who married Martha Cross, daughter of John and Elizabeth Cocke Cross, died before 13 August 1795.²⁰ This researcher suspects, but has not investigated thoroughly, that this John Chappell may have been the son of Robert (d. 1794). The children of John and Martha Cross Chappell--John Cross Chappell and Robert Chappell, Jr. (so designated)--were underage when their father died. Their guardian was Peter Lamkin (their uncle) and the administrator of their father's estate was William Cross (their uncle?). Since John Chappell and Martha Cross took out their marriage bond (in Lunenburg County) on 4 August 1788, we can assume that the children were born between 1789 and 1795. Also, since the account of the estate of John Chappell showed that Elizabeth Davis, a midwife, was paid on 20 August 1795, we can assume that one of the children was born in 1795.²¹

Between 14 January and 12 April 1824 Robert Chappell, Jr., died in Lunenburg County, Virginia, and in his will named his mother as Martha Rogers. This man can be easily identified as the son of John and Martha Cross Chappell. Martha Chappell had married Reuben Rogers on 28 January 1800 in Lunenburg County.²² And it is obvious that this Robert (b. between 1789-1795) would have been a junior to Robert (b. between 1773-1780), son of Robert (d. 1794). If it is true that John Chappell (d. before 13 August 1795) was the son of Robert (d. 1794), then Robert (b. before 1789-1795) would also have been a nephew of Robert (b. between 1773-1780).

²⁰Lunenburg Order Book 16, p. 579.

²¹Lunenburg Order Book 17, p. 30-31.

Robert Chappell (b. between 1773-1780) died in Lunenburg County sometime between 26 March and 8 May 1826.²³ He was survived by a daughter, Elizabeth, then underage. Two of the devisees of his will were Anderson Bagley (his brother-in-law) and Polly C. Morrison (his niece--Bagley's daughter); their mention in his will (even without relationship being stated therein) identifies this Robert. He was probably the man who was a justice of the peace in Lunenburg County by 1803.

* * *

Certainly more research needs to be done on this family--for example, on the early life of the father of Robert (d. 1794) and on the parents and siblings of the father. However, because of the facts presented above, perhaps these particular Robert Chappells will cause fewer headaches to other researchers.

LOSSES TO THE BRITISH IN NANSEMOND COUNTY

by L.H.Hart

An account of sundry losses sustained by the British troops in the Lower Parish of Nansmond County as follows.

The format of this list includes the name of the individual with the number(-) and an evaluation of property lost by type and then totalled. The following abbreviations are used: Hs-Houses, V-Vessels, N-Negroes, H-Horses, C-Cattle, Sh-Sheep, F-Furniture, A-Apparel, P-Provisions, Cr-Corn, S-Spirits, T-Total. All figures are in pounds.

The lists are badly torn, and there is a column which appears to be hogs but is too difficult to read and will be noted by an asterisk(*).
